

HOME DESIGN COMPETITION

Open to Year 7

Closing date 29th July 2022

Following the art workshops run by John Lewis Chichester your child is invited to enter a Home Design Competition to create a moodboard for a home space of their choice. So all you budding artists out there stir up your creative juices and get designing.

The winning entries will be displayed in the John Lewis Cafe in Chichester, with the overall winner having their design brought to life in the store.

John Lewis's Home Design Stylists offer customers free consultations to design their home, from a simple refresh to a full home design service. They use moodboards as part of the process, so this is a great opportunity for students to develop real world skills.

First Prize:

You design brought to life by the John Lewis team and displayed in store.

Plus a £50 Gift Voucher.

Runners up:

Runners up will each receive a £10 gift voucher.

See entry form for full terms and conditions.

COMPETITION BRIEF

Your Design

Your design should draw on inspiration from John Lewis, For ideas you might like to visit our website www.johnlewis.co.uk or pop into the store and have a look at the types of product we sell. You are free to choose any space in a home, a den, bedroom, lounge or any other space that grabs your imagination. Think colour, space and texture. Think about your style and who the audience is. Are you going to go contemporary or traditional, bold or classic?

Presentation

This is an art project but you are free to consider different mediums. Choose watercolour, pastil, collage, crayon, electronic or another medium it's your choice.

Judging

Your design will be judged for originality, creativity, resources used and the overall flow of your design. The creative team are looking for colours that compliment each other, and a display which will grab the customers eye.
